The first time you visit the Easter Bunny, you'll go in a little loop. You'll see an Egg Tree. Hit the Egg Tree to harvest some Eggs. Then, hop on and ride a Sleigh down to the nest in the tree. Pay attention to where the Egg Tree is, as you'll need it to help you get to next Egg Tree. Collect as many Eggs as you can find, until you've collected all the Eggs you can find. Do this until you make it to the nest where the Easter Bunny lives, and then he'll give you a gift! You have a few months to complete the loop, the first time it's possible. Make sure you keep track of your Eggs. You can see how many you have by hitting the Egg Tree button. The Easter Bunny will upgrade your Sleigh, so make sure you enjoy the ride! How to Play: Harvest Flowers, use Explorer Hares to discover more Chocolate, and plant Trees to harvest Eggs. Use all of these to forge Baskets, and trade them in for huge bonuses! Battle Bosses like the Easter Bunny and his guards for great rewards! Your Hares won't give you anything if you don't use them to explore the game and discover Eggs. Find Flowerbeds to grow more Hares. Hares are available for training with Seeds, and that's how you get new and rare Hares. You'll start off with only three Hares, and when you have a certain amount of Seeds you can buy more. Once you've collected all the eggs in the game, you'll earn a special Easter Egg. You'll need to collect another egg to turn it in to the Easter Bunny. Earn Experience Points that upgrade your Hares. You can use them to help you explore, craft items, battle bosses, and earn Hares. More Hares comes with more bonuses!

Hareage is something you earn over the course of your journey. Each time you discover an Egg, or work on a Tastes, you'll earn Hareage. It's a good idea to get more Hares as early as you can, and you can earn more Hares by selling Extras. Each Hare can be trained to craft different items. You have a maximum of four Hares you can work with. When you level up your Hares

What's new:

Resort Do not expect resort standards at the Offana family's latest acquisition at Sepanggar Village. The Indonesian midwife resort certainly has its charms, such as the unique setting looking out over a landscaped paradise, diversified interior spaces and the occupation of the various wings of the property that cater to various ages, gender and interests. The midwife resort was completed last year and it is already fashionable among families as a retreat where to take a break from the city and just recharge the tired bodies. Mothers and teachers who take care of our children may not find themselves here. And students will not feel bullied into completing a piece of work. At the midwife resort, you find a resort that is just for the needs of being a mother or a student. There is a café next to the lobby where you can enjoy breakfast and some midwife-inspired dishes. The resort is well equipped with all the modern amenities: coffeemakers, minibars, a common kitchen and private and semi-private accommodation options. There are 7 bedrooms classified as standard, junior and deluxe rooms. Although the rooms are spacious, the bedspaces are filled with only our bed I mean children's beds, but that's ok since mothers hardly use them anyway. A large bathroom is also provided for but children are sure to demand for the soap and the bath tub here. Soap is available in many forms and sizes to suit whatever human needs. The bath tub that is provided as well serves as a complete course in science laboratory. You can create bubbles by filling it with foam and then pour baking soda into it to make a vegetable soup. To awaken the children, just run cold water through it to create a whirlpool. We enjoy a bit of a hidden gem at the midwife resort. That is the free guidebook in English written by Nadi, a staff member from the Indonesian midwife. It talks about the history of the Ayurveda, which is one of the five schools of traditional medicine. The guides conversed in English on the published articles in well-known publications such as the Journal of Ayurvedic Medicine and Tradition. They expanded the maximum ways to experience the comfort of a good holiday. Pass-time by playing go-fetch games with the resort's new friends. Go out to the balcony to admire the beautiful scenery or the collection of bonsai. It's all good fun. Best of all, it'
