THE ITEM BATTLE SYSTEM OF THE ELDEN RING. ————— The Elder Ring’s history and Legend is associated with the Five Rings. The Five Rings are the basics of “Ichimonji” (military tactics). This is an ancient set of tactics that are incorporated in every aspect of military weapons, martial arts, weapons, armor, tools, and more. “Ichimonji” is divided into three groups; Ten Arts (Ringo), which is the highest level, consists of “Tetsugutsu” (Tetsujutsu), “Ina” (Ichiwaza), “Gakusei” (Gakurei), and “Shiai” (Shiai). The Ring of Ten Arts has been passed down for a thousand years. It is considered to be a Ring that will enhance the “Mitama” (psychic energy) and could create a perfect person. The Ring of Ten Arts is the most valuable Ring. “Tetsugutsu” is sword arts. By using the sword with only one hand, “Tetsugutsu” is a basic technique of “Ichimonji” and enables you to cut down an opponent’s guard. “Ina” is the art of taking a full swing and delivering one’s own attack. The aim is to increase the damage of sword arts by using the power of both hands and arms. It is the way of deciding victory or defeat. “Gakusei” is the art of striking or stopping an opponent. By stinging the enemy’s heart with the tip of the sword, “Gakusei” becomes the quickest way of taking down an opponent and gaining victory. Shiai is the art of “Renbu” (Parrying). By parrying an opponent’s attack and rapidly striking back, the swordsman can deliver a fatal blow. Shiai is the ultimate defensive sword art of “Ichimonji”. ————— THE PRIVILEGE OF THE RING. In a time of power struggle in the Eredane Empire, the power of the Five Rings was in a continuous decline. A mystical ritual was performed in order to protect its strength. bff6bb2d33
